Family Service League (FSL), founded in 1926, is a not-for-profit, community-based human service agency serving over thirty-eight thousand individuals each year. FSL serves individuals from infancy through the senior years and families, and offers more than 50 programs in over 22 locations.

FSL is credentialed by the Council on Accreditation for Children and Family Services (COA) for meeting the highest standards of best practices and quality services for individuals and families.

Family Service League is a member of the Suffolk Community Council, the Health and Welfare Council, the Peconic Community Council, the Mental Health Association in Suffolk County, the Huntington Township Chamber of Commerce, the Long Island Association, and the New York State Association of Family Service Agencies.

Family Service League is an Equal Opportunity Employer

FSL does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, age, religion, or disability in admission or access to treatment or employment in its programs and activities. FSL welcomes suggestions, comments and other forms of input about its services from consumers and their families, and others. A grievance procedure is available also. Please contact the Program Director.

F.A.C.I.L.E. is a joint project by the Huntington Youth Bureau and Family Service League of Suffolk County, Inc.

H.Y.B.

The Huntington Youth Bureau is an agency of Town government and is responsible for representing and serving the needs, interests and welfare of youth under the age of 21. The Youth Bureau contracts with regional Community and Youth Agencies (CYA's), as well as with the special townwide projects of the Huntington Youth Bureau Youth Development Research Institute, Inc.

The Youth Bureau is overseen by the members of the YOUTH BOARD, a culturally, socially and economically diverse citizen board recruited from all areas of the Town in order to reflect a broad variety of perspectives on family and community life in Huntington. The Youth Board, a policy-making board, is appointed by, and accountable to, the Huntington Town Board and is responsible for overseeing the Youth Bureau.

Funding for the Youth Bureau and its agencies comes from all levels of government as well as from foundations, corporations and individuals.
