

FIRST ANNUAL PARENT ACADEMY

Wednesday, December 11, 2013

6:00—9:00pm

The Parent Academy is an opportunity for parents to come to Huntington High School and participate in a variety of workshops of their choice. The various workshops will focus on adolescents' academic, social, and emotional well-being. Some of the presentations include:

- ◆ What is the Common Core?
- ◆ "My Child's Anxiety is Making Me Anxious...Help!"
- ◆ Get To Know The New Math
- ◆ Mean Girls and the Culture of Relational Aggression
- ◆ "Flipping the Classroom": An Alternative Learning Approach

FIRST ANNUAL PARENT ACADEMY

Wednesday, December 11, 2013

6:00—8:35pm

The Parent Academy is an opportunity for parents to come to Huntington High School and participate in a variety of workshops of their choice addressing adolescents' academic, social, and emotional well-being.

To register: Log onto our website, www.hufsd.edu:

- ◆ Use the drop down box located on the top right hand side of the screen and scroll down to “e-boards”.
- ◆ Scroll down to Huntington High School
- ◆ Access and complete the preregistration for under HHS, labeled Parent Academy Registration.

***You can also register in person at Huntington High School Mon-Thurs. 2:30-4:00 (in the library) or during the evening of Parent/Teacher Conferences on 12/05/13.

- ◆ Light refreshments will be served.
- ◆ Free raffles.
- ◆ Transportation will be provided for those parents who need it (shuttle service to and from Manor Field (La Casita) and the Station Library [times: 5:30pm; 7:00pm; 7:45pm; 8:30pm] .