Huntington Youth Court is run for youth by youth. Juvenile offenders who have committed a misdemeanor crime have their case heard by a jury of their peers. Volunteer youth perform the roles of prosecuting attorney, defending attorney, judge, bailiff, and jury. Youth Court is for first time offenders under 16 years old.

The Huntington Youth Court practices Restorative Justice Principles when handing down a sentence. Restorative Justice is an approach that (1) holds the offender accountable for their offenses, (2) includes the community in response to the offense, and (3) develops the skills and competencies of the offender so they will lead a law abiding life and become productive members of society.
